WORLD CUP DUKE AUCTIONED

To commemorate the accomplishments of Australia's Socceroos in the 2006 FIFA World Cup, Fraser Motorcycles has created a limited-edition Ducati 999 that has been signed by the team. In conjunction with Ebay and the 2006 Bandaged Bear benefit night, the 999 was auctioned to raise money for the Westmead Children's Hospital and Illawarra Kids with Disabilities. The patriotic 999 sold for $55,100.

ON THE ZEN TRAIL

Des Molloy and Dick Hurdeman are two self-proclaimed silly old fools who can't get enough adventure. Last year, aboard a 1965 Yorkshire-made 650cc Panther and a 1954 Norton 600, the Kiwi pair documented The Last Hurrah, an adventure that took them over 16,000km from China through Asia and Europe to finish up in Holland.

Des and Dick enjoyed themselves so much, they're at it again. This time they are recreating the journey and inspiration behind Robert Pirsig's renowned novel, Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance. Combining promotion of The Last Hurrah book and DVD, the pair are currently travelling from Minnesota to San Francisco with Pirsig's son and neighbours, who featured in the original multi-million selling book. To see where the silly old fools are up to or to buy The Last Hurrah book or DVD, check out the website at www.thelasthurrah.com.nz.

FINDING PARTS MADE EASY

Mike King has developed a website to take the hassle out of locating new, used or reconditioned parts. The site, www.findapart.com.au, is free for dealers and users and works by sending your request via email to its rapidly growing database of dealers, wreckers and suppliers across Australia and New Zealand. Mike intends to expand the site to cater for other fields such as cars, trucks, 4WDs and watercraft.
